

Most Silicon Valley Law Firms Are Mafia-Like Consiglieres For Corrupt Tech CEO's And VC's!

By Anton T. Sun

A Consigliere (Italian consigliere "counselor", pronounced [kɒnsɪˈʌɪːrɪ], roughly kohn-see-YEHR-eh; plural consiglieri) is a position within the leadership structure of the Sicilian, Calabrian and American Mafia. The word was popularized by the novel The Godfather (1969) and its film adaptation. In the novel, a consigliere is an advisor or counselor to the boss, with the additional responsibility of representing the boss in important meetings both within the boss's crime family and with other crime families. The consigliere is a close, trusted friend and confidant, the mob's version of an elder statesman; he is an adviser to the boss in a Mafia crime family, and sometimes is his 'right-hand man'. In some depictions, he is devoid of ambition and dispenses disinterested advice. By the very nature of the job, a consigliere is one of the few in the family who can argue with the boss, and is often tasked with challenging the boss when needed, to ensure subsequent plans are foolproof.[\[1\]](#)

Mark Zuckerberg, Elon Musk, Larry Page, Tim Draper, Larry Page, Steve Westly and the other questionable characters of Silicon Valley are oligarchs who look to “law” firms like Wilson Sonsini, Morrison Forester, Brobeck, and the usual rat-pack of so called “High Technology Law Firms” to hide their tax evasions, bribe their Senators, pay-off the hookers and rent boys they get pregnant or give STD's to, hide their money in the Cayman Islands, stay one step ahead of the Anti-Trust and Monopoly investigators, and run the Silicon Valley Cartel like the most upstanding Mob operation around.

Silicon Valley Law Firms need to be raided by the FBI and FTC and indicted by Grand Juries. They are as big a bunch of criminal operations as their clients!
