

'MS-13 Killers...They Aren't So Bad'

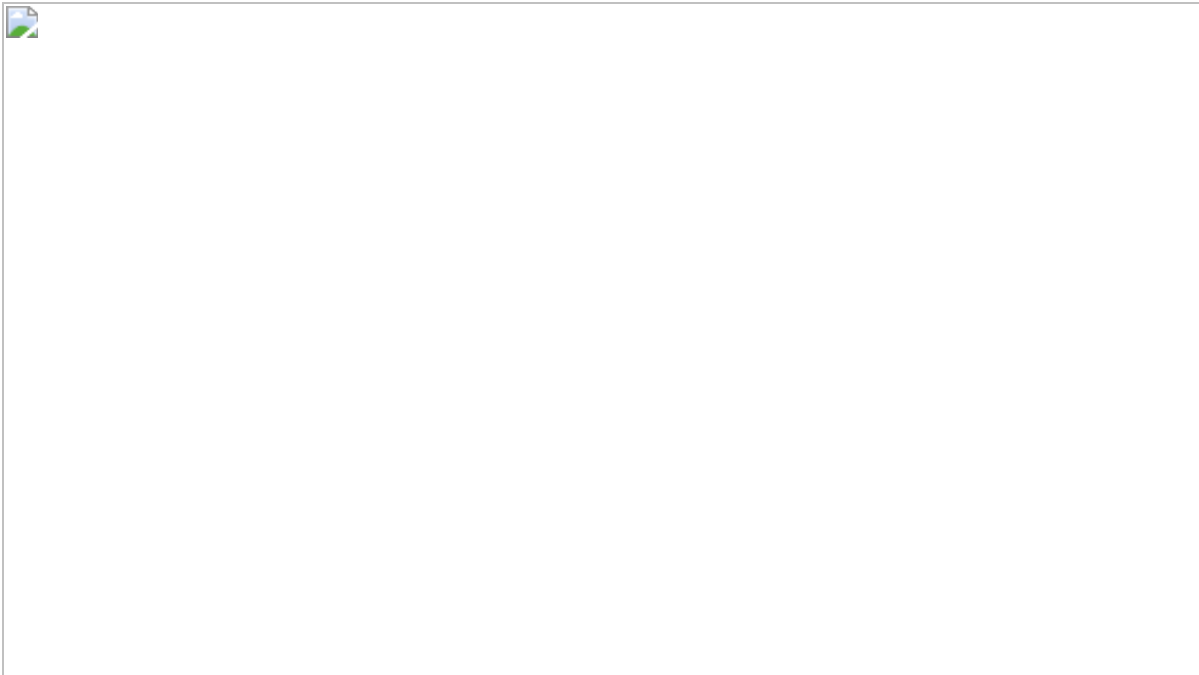

by Kristinn Taylor 129 Comments

281 Share

131 Tweet

Email

The Republican National Committee posted a video ad to Twitter Tuesday that destroys House Minority Leader Nancy Pelosi (D-CA) and the Democratic Party for defending MS-13 after President Donald Trump called the vicious El Salvadoran gang, "animals".

Screen images from GOP ad.

The one minute long video opens and closes with Pelosi defending the humanity of MS-13 gang members. In between are news accounts of horrendous MS-13 attacks including one where a victim was stabbed over one hundred times, decapitated, dismembered and had his heart cut out. Another report states two MS-13 gang members kidnapped, sexually assaulted, shot and sacrificed a 15-year-old girl to Satan.

The video closes with the unspoken message, “Democrats’ Midterm Message, MS-13 Killers...They Aren’t Not So Bad.”

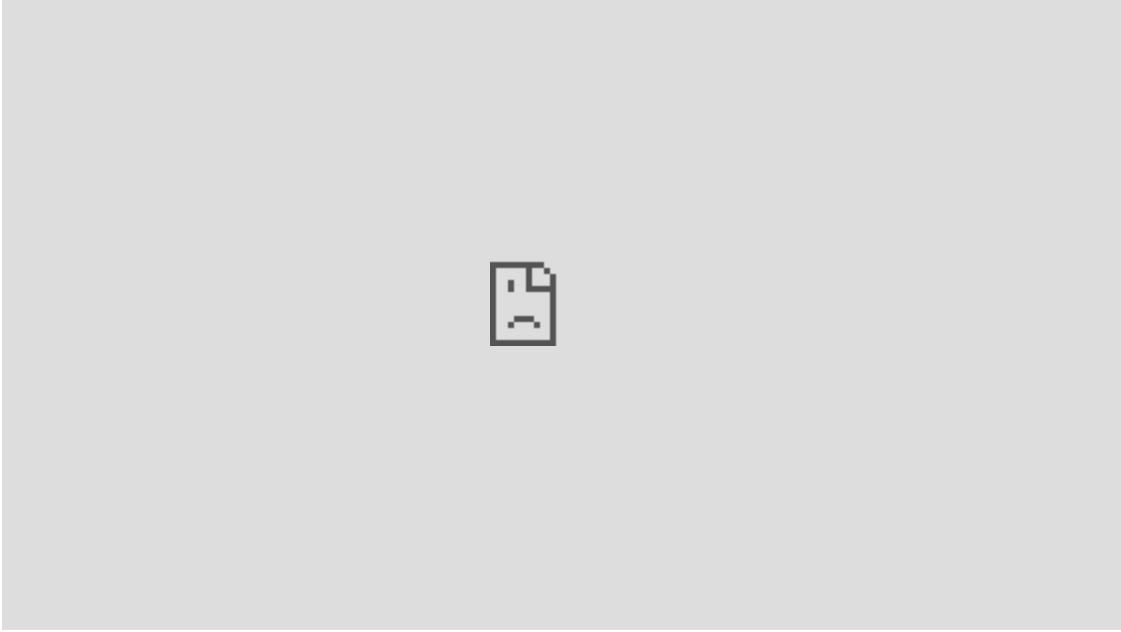

Democrats' Midterm Message? MS-13 killers aren't so bad... pic.twitter.com/b6YeDVYDBy

— *GOP (@GOP) May 29, 2018

Video from Pelosi’s May 17 press conference defending MS-13 posted by the GOP.

Video also from May 17 of Trump explaining to the media why the day before he called MS-13 “animals” and always will.

281 Share

131 Tweet

Email

Loading...

Comments