OKC is owned by IAC who also owns Match Group (this includes Tinder and PlentyofFish), Vimeo, Ask.com, Dictionary.com, The Daily Beast and many others. Bill Clinton's daughter is a board member of IAC, which alone should say everything. They wish to control the narrative like they've always done.

This is course takes its toll on the everyday joe who wishes to meet a nice, modest women who hasn't whored herself out secretly or "professionally" (escorts). The whole point is to corrode American culture and reprogram its citizens to accept self destruction. Women destroy their sanctity in the name of women's rights by opening themselves up sexually to anybody and using their sex appeal as a power base. Men in turn are programmed to cuck themselves and either worship the pussy at every corner, letting black men corrupt her permanently or taught to hate what women have become and instead turn homosexual to "compensate." I cannot tell you the amount of homosexual liberals I have come across. These people are being taught to take pleasure in harming their sense of identity, morality and sanctity. The globalists have played everyone's self hatred against themselves. Of course, the reasons are more intricate than this and you could write a whole book on this subject, I'm just laying the basics.

Finding a woke white woman who hasn't whored herself out and is mentally stable is extremely difficult. It doesn't help that with this economy, many are turning towards escorting to pay the rent.

The unapologetically fat ones are the best.

They're not wasting my time with fat girl angle shots. I can tell right off the bat that I'm not interested.

ahahaha holy shit what a find.

Years ago I tried a couple of dating sites for free, and on one of them you had to pay to see who views you, but I got 80 views in about 30 mins from I swear bots just to make me pay to see.

Didn't pay and I deleted my account the next day because lol.
E: just remembered it was match.com the faggots.

It's like one of those 105 car wrecks that turns into a fire and 30 people die. You know you should look away. You don't want to see what's there. But you just can't not look.

Hate you OP! <jk>

Nothing much has actually changed. Always been mentally ill on dating apps (if they could get somebody in real life they wouldn't be on the app) just that they decided to die their hair now.

Dating sites have always been bottom-of-the-barrel garbage-people. Like, 95% of the people on them. Then, the 5% that aren't, get chased away by all those who are. They're not worth it, dude. The only difference between then and now, is that the garbage people speak a different language of self-loathing lack-of-self-awareness. Oh, and they reflect the fact that 70% of the population of overweight; 40% morbidity so.

Plenty of "normal people" date Niggers too.It's because American society itself is degenerate.Those degenerate people above are the products of the degenerate society they live in.

They are victims, not villains.

Like i said above, they still need to get hanged, as their kind of disease is incurable.But they shouldn't be hanged out of our anger towards them, but out of our good will to put them out of their misery.

Anyone with so little intelligence and sense of self-preservation to date an 85-average-IQ savage is no longer "normal". They made their bed, let them lie in it.

I don't trust dating sites anyway because they always want your credit card number and most of the users on those sites either are men, unattractive femwhales, or scam bots.

I have a huge collection of my own grotesque dating app screenshots. My favorite one is this long winded bio about what she's looking for and expects and how fun she is. Then at the end she throws in "BTW I have 6 kids so if you don't like kids, BYE"

I live in a conservative area in the U.S. The few times I've tried online dating I didn't come across this stuff unless I increased the radius for my matches. This is insane. That's all that I have to say.

I think more people would have success just approaching a woman, she might be married or attached... who cares it will only make her smile unless you have dick out... then that might be a bit creepy for her. Even if you have 10" cock like me.

All these chat bullshit apps destroyed small talk.

Women that avoid the men in their lives and look to the internet for relationships are not the type of women you want to find yourself around.

Women that care more about their digital facade than their real self are not the type of women you want to find yourself around.

Rethink this. Meet someone in real life.

OKC has a lot of fuckups to sort through, seems the saddest of the sad go there. I met my girlfriend of 6 years there and she is pretty fucking great tbh. I dropped my expectations down a little in terms of look and ended up with a girly girl who loves to look her best and cook shit for me. She'll make me a sammich while we both shit on Muslims. Love her.

Siphon through the shit and stop looking at 57% matches.

OKCupid tailors it's match results based on the click-through rate for your profile. If your profile doesn't get clicked on for explored very often, relative to how often it is featured in match results for other users, then the match results that you see, will also be users with low click-through rates. Basically, if you're ugly and unappealing, OkCupid will show you ugly and unappealing people that other people also think are ugly and unappealing. They don't talk about this part of their matching algorithm very much anymore, but a few years ago they sent me an email explaining it in sufficient detail, because I had a high click-through rate.

Also, unrelated to anybody's click-through rate, okcupid has bought, hook line & sinker, into the whole transgender bullshit movement, which is why you see tranny fags in your match results.

Stop using OkCupid. Focus on meeting people in the real world.

I've met a couple of women that have black spawn. Every one of them hid it and when I never saw them again they didn't pester me with calls asking why. I didn't even hear from them. It's like they knew and have been through it before.

With one woman it was like figuring out a riddle. She left small clues about her son- no photos, no nothing. That was hint no. 1
