Majority of Americans say Joe and Hunter's business deals and links to alleged bribery scheme ARE serious: BidenGate gets real as new poll shows half of DEMOCRATS believe 'influence-peddling' scheme is a scandal

Steve Bannon, a top ally of former President Donald Trump, says the poll shows an 'awakening' of US voters who have for too long been kept in the dark about the Biden family's business dealings.

Republicans are digging in on over $10 million received by Biden family members from foreign actors, including previously undisclosed $1 million in Romanian-linked payments, and a 'web' of 20 companies created while President Joe Biden was vice president and pushing anti-corruption efforts abroad. On Wednesday, House Oversight Committee Republicans led by Chairman James Comer, R-Ky., released a 'Second Records Memorandum' that expands on information it received from subpoena returns as the committee continues its investigation into the Biden family's business practices. The memo specifically outlines the Biden family's ties to Romanian 'influence peddling' and a web of LLCs created while Biden was vice president. It also accuses President Biden for a 'lack of transparency' regarding his family's receipt of funds from China, which he has said are 'not true.'

Milking it: Biden's GRANDCHILDREN and Hunter's current wife are among the ten family members who received foreign cash through 'influence-peddling scheme', Republicans claim

Oversight Republicans on Wednesday morning revealed how nine family members of Joe Biden - even down to a grandchild - received wire payments amounting to over $10 million from foreign nationals around the time he was vice president. Those who benefitted included Hunter Biden, Hallie Biden, Beau Biden's widow and Hunter Biden's one-time girlfriend, Hunter Biden's ex-wife Kathleen Buhle, Hunter Biden's current wife Melissa Cohen Biden, Biden's brother James and his wife Sarah, and the grandchildren and nieces of nephews of Joe Biden. An additional Biden bank account has been identified but it's not yet clear who it belongs to. 'We're talking about grandchildren - a grandchild. That's odd. Most people that work hard everyday's grandchild doesn't get a wire from a foreign national or anything like that,' Comer said in a news conference.

McCarthy says FBI Director Christopher Wray WILL hand over document that Rep. James Comer claims outlines a criminal bribery scheme involving President Biden and a foreign national

Appearing for a televised interview Sunday, the California rep offered some insight as to what transpired between him and director Christopher Wray on the Friday call, which came a day after feds rebuffed a subpoena requesting the still unseen report. The official request was sent by House Oversight Committee Chair James Comer, and pertained to a prospective financial form that several GOP lawmakers claim lays out an 'alleged criminal scheme' involving Biden and an unnamed foreign national. However, almost immediately afterward, the bureau's acting assistant director of congressional affair penned a letter to Comer, a Republican from Kentucky, informing him the agency would not immediately provide the form in question. McCarthy, 58, promptly issued his own statement decrying the response, in which he decried the official reply from Assistant Director Christopher Dunham as 'unacceptable' - and vowed to speak to his direct superior by phone by Friday

Biden family members sold access for profit around the world to the detriment of American interests. If President Biden is compromised by deals with foreign adversaries and they are impacting his decision making, this is a threat to national security.

Members of the Biden family and their business associates raked in millions of dollars from foreign entities during and after Joe Biden's time as vice president, using nearly two dozen companies and taking advantage of a vast network of sketchy business associates.

The now-first family, their associates, and the companies took in at least $10 million just from firms run by Chinese and Romanian nationals through various deals struck by first son Hunter Biden, according to records subpoenaed from four separate banks by the Republican-led House Oversight Committee.

However, other information suggests the Bidens earned tens of millions of dollars more than that.

In a 36-page memo released Wednesday, the committee revealed funds initially flowed from the foreign entities to at least 20 companies, most of which were LLCs created while Joe Biden was President Barack Obama's vice president and run by Hunter's business friends. The money was then doled out in smaller amounts to other family members.

"These complicated financial transactions appear to conceal the source of the funds and reduce the conspicuousness of the total amounts made into the Biden bank accounts," the committee said in the memo.

Oversight Chairman James Comer (R-Ky.) identified nine Biden family members known to have benefited: Hunter; first brother James Biden; his wife, Sara; first daughter-in-law Hallie Biden, the widow of Joe Biden's son Beau; Hunter's ex-wife, Kathleen Buhle; his current wife, Melissa Cohen; and "three children of the president's son and the president's brother."

The Beijing-backed CEFC China Energy is also in the committee's crosshairs for its connections to State Energy HK Limited, a firm that paid $3 million in 2017 to Robinson Walker, the LLC of Biden associate and former Clinton administration official Rob Walker.

On March 16, the committee produced its first memo on the Biden bank records showing how Walker divvied up the six-figure sums, taking $869,308 for himself, $610,692 for Hunter and $360,000 for James.

The oldest-ever president has repeatedly denied knowledge of his son's overseas business ventures. During a 2020 presidential debate, Biden also stressed that Hunter made no money on deals linked to China.

"My son has not made money in terms of this thing about — what are you talking about — China," he said at the second and final debate with Donald Trump on Oct. 22, 2020. "The only guy who made money from China is this guy [Trump]. He's the only one. Nobody else has made money from China."

Vice President Biden had visited Romania in May 2014 to deliver a speech on the dangers of corruption.

"Corruption is a cancer, a cancer that eats away at a citizen's faith in democracy, diminishes the instinct for innovation and creativity, already-tight national budgets, crowding out important national investments," he said at the time.

The Oversight Committee cited concerns in its Wednesday memo that the payments may threaten US national security, as some of the business associates had links to the Chinese Communist Party.

"It wastes the talent of entire generations. It scares away investments and jobs. And most importantly it denies the people their dignity. It saps the collective strength and resolve of a nation. Corruption is just another form of tyranny."

The Oversight Committee is also investigating payments from Ukraine, Kazakhstan, Mexico and Oman, as well as Hunter's financial stake in the China-backed private equity firm BHR Partners.
